Current Team Structure

Currently founder-led with plans for strategic growth through consultants, trainers, and collaborative partnerships.

Founder

Tatyana Lance, MBA, MSW, LMSW, LCSW-A

Professional biography and headshot will be provided to the designer prior to launch.

7. Website Goals

Primary Goals

- Establish credibility as a professional consulting firm
- Generate qualified consulting leads
- Schedule discovery calls
- Promote professional training offerings
- Showcase expertise and organizational impact
- Build long-term partnerships with organizational clients

Desired Visitor Actions

- Schedule a Consultation
- Request a Proposal
- Contact the Team
- Register for Training
- Join the Email List
- Download Resources

How will success be measured?

- Consultation requests
- Proposal requests
- Website traffic
- Training registrations
- Email subscribers
- LinkedIn growth
- Lead conversions

Designer Note: The website should function as a lead-generation platform, not a digital brochure. Every page should answer three questions: Who are we? How do we help? What is the next step? Every major page should include a clear call to action. The site should actively guide visitors toward becoming clients.

8. Existing Content & Ideas

Navigation / Website Tabs (Suggested)

- Home
- About
- Services (with sub-pages for each division)
- Industries We Serve
- Government Contracting
- Resources
- Contact

Existing Content Available

- Mission and Vision statements

- Company overview and firm description
 - Founder biography
 - Service descriptions for all divisions
 - Marketing materials
 - Training information and program descriptions
 - LinkedIn content
 - Organizational messaging and brand copy
 - Capability statement (in development)

9. Media & References

Available Media

- Company logo (high-resolution files to be provided)
- Founder headshots
- Brand graphics

Future Media (to be added post-launch)

- Training and workshop photography
- Speaking engagement photos
- Team photography (as the firm grows)
- Client success stories and testimonials

Website Inspiration

The website should reflect the professionalism and credibility of a national consulting firm while remaining warm, approachable, and community-focused. The emphasis should be on clean design, strong messaging, intuitive navigation, and clear calls to action.

Reference site: <https://www.staycuriouspsych.com>

This site is admired for its clean layout, warm professional tone, clear service structure, and the way it guides visitors toward a specific next action. The 728 Collaborative site should achieve a similar balance of authority and approachability while reflecting a consulting firm (rather than an individual practice) at a slightly larger organizational scale.

10. Functionality

Required Features

- Online consultation scheduling
- Contact forms
- Service pages for each division
- Industry portfolio pages

- Blog and Insights section
- Resource library
- Downloadable capability statement
- Newsletter and email list signup
- Mobile optimization
- Search engine optimization (SEO)
- Google Analytics integration

Future Features (Phase 2)

- Learning Management System (LMS) integration
- Client portal capability

11. Technical Information

Domain Name

728collaborative.org

Hosting Provider

To be determined. The designer should recommend a hosting solution appropriate for the site's functionality requirements and anticipated traffic.

Business Email Platform

Google Workspace

12. Competitors & Inspiration

Design Direction

The website should reflect the professionalism and credibility of a national consulting firm while remaining warm, approachable, and community-focused. Clean design, strong messaging, intuitive navigation, and clear calls to action are the priorities.

Competitor Notes

No specific competitor sites are identified for benchmarking at this time. The designer should reference the consulting and professional services sector broadly, including firms operating in healthcare, behavioral health, workforce development, and organizational consulting. The site should position 728 Collaborative as a firm-level brand, not an individual practitioner.

13. Additional Information

Key Positioning Note

728 Collaborative LLC should be presented as a professional consulting firm, not solely as an individual consultant or training provider. The website should clearly communicate that the firm serves organizations through consulting and professional learning while also supporting individuals and families through the SW@Home division.

Scalability Requirement

The website should be designed with scalability in mind. Additional service lines, industry portfolios, speaking engagements, digital products, case studies, client testimonials, and future team members should be incorporable without requiring a complete redesign.

Tone and Voice

Professional, evidence-informed, and strategic. The firm speaks to organizational decision-makers and purchasing leaders. Warm enough to be approachable, authoritative enough to command confidence. Copy should be concise, direct, and free of filler language.
